Circle Hymn 328 (purple)

Surely The Presence

*Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place,
I can feel God's mighty power and God's grace.
I can hear the brush of angel's wings, I see glory on each face.
Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place!*

UMH #432 (purple) v1-3

Jesu, Jesu

Call to Worship

One: Arise, shine, for your light has come.

All: Stand up, a new day is dawning,

One: A new year is born,

All: Fresh and clean.

One: Arise, shine, for your light has come.

All: Emmanuel, God is with us

One: On every path we take,

All: No matter where we go.

One: Arise, shine, for your light has come,

All: And the stars still shine

One: Where Christ is present

All: And voices sing in praise!

Lord, Listen To Your Children Praying

Lord, listen to your children praying,
Lord, send your Spirit in this place;
Lord, listen to your children praying,
send us love, send us power, send us grace.

Every Riven Thing by Christian Wiman:

God goes, belonging to every riven thing he's made sing his being simply by being the thing it is:
stone and tree and sky,
man who sees and sings and wonders why

God goes. Belonging, to every riven thing he's made,
means a storm of peace.
Think of the atoms inside the stone.
Think of the man who sits alone trying to will himself into a stillness where

God goes belonging. To every riven thing he's made there is given one shade shaped exactly to the thing itself:
under the tree a darker tree;
under the man the only man to see

God goes belonging to every riven thing. He's made the things that bring him near,
made the mind that makes him go.
A part of what man knows,
apart from what man knows,

God goes belonging to every riven thing he's made.
